Barking Cat Jewelry Celebrates “Adopt-A-Cat” Month with Line of Rescue Themed Pendant Necklaces

During June, Barking Cat Jewelry will donate 10% of Cat Pendant sales to Best Friends Animal Society

ATLANTA – June 1, 2010 – Always a champion of creating a better world for animals everywhere, Barking Cat Jewelry celebrates cat shelter parents and the hardworking cat rescue groups with a one-of-a-kind line of rescue themed pendant necklaces. Touting phrases like “Rescue Mom,” “Who Rescued Who” and “Crazy Cat Lady,” the line of handmade necklaces not only gives cat rescue parents the praise they deserve, but also aims to raise awareness about the importance of pet adoption. This June, in support of “Adopt-A-Cat” month, Barking Cat Jewelry will donate 10% of all cat pendant online sales to Best Friends Animal Society (www.bestfriends.org) for their continued work in placing homeless cats in loving homes.

“As a rescue mom of two cats, I personally know how rewarding it is to adopt pets in need,” said Barking Cat Jewelry artist Ann Finley. “I designed many of the Barking Cat pieces to be representative of just that and to give other adoptive parents a fashionable way to show their love for their pets.”

Barking Cat Jewelry’s cat collection features six original cat sayings, including “What Cat Hair,” “Sleeps with Cats,” “Life is Purrfect,” “Rescue Mom,” “Crazy Cat Lady” and “Staff,” capturing the true essence of what it means to be a cat owner. Each pendant is hand stamped on 22 gauge copper, soldered to textured sterling silver, is complete with a sterling silver cat charm and hangs from a sterling silver ball chain.
